In Re: Letter of Recommendation and of Thanks

Dear Susan:

You were so generous with your time and knowledge when we discussed one of my criminal cases yesterday. Please consider this my letter of recommendation for your consulting services.

The information and ideas you passed on to me were helpful and provocative. I really look forward to working with you again, possibly on that same case and almost certainly on others.

Your responsiveness to my request for a consult was incredibly quick and the option to do it by Zoom or phone was appreciated. I thought a Zoom session was the better choice, and it was because I felt more engaged in a video call, as opposed to a regular phone call.

I would recommend any public defender or PAC attorney or private hire attorney, take advantage of the incredible opportunity to pick your brain about their case and to learn from your vast experience as a criminal defense attorney.

Thanks again for your generosity and I will actively encourage others to use you as a consultant for criminal defense cases, and especially sex offense cases.

Sincerely,
